

ISAIAH

The Exaltation and Suffering of the Servant, pt. 2 Isaiah 53:4-12

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 19, 2017

1. The suffering of the Servant of God.

- a. The Servant bore the _____ consequences of the sins of His people.
- b. The Servant bore the _____ of sinner's transgressions as their substitute.
- c. It was _____ who laid the iniquity of sinners on the Servant and it was God who was the ultimate source of His suffering.
- d. The Servant endured false accusations, suffering, and death with a _____ submission.
- e. The Servant's substitutionary _____ was a propitiation for sinners.

2. The exaltation of the Servant of God.

- a. Though the Servant died alongside sinners, He was _____ in a rich man's tomb.
- b. Death was not the _____ for the Servant, He was resurrected so that His days were prolonged.
- c. The Servant _____ executed the will of God and so there was great blessing and satisfaction as a result.
 - 1) It is by the work of the Servant that _____ sinners are forgiven and counted as righteous.
 - 2) It is in the triumph of the Servant that He shares the _____ with His people.
- d. The Servant is the exalted _____ not only in His sacrificial death, but also in His continued intercession for His people.