

Discussion Questions

- What do we learn about God from this passage?
- What does this passage show about God's relationship to man?
- What can we learn from Amos' pleading with God?
- What are truths from God's word that can be hard to wrestle with?
- How does this passage encourage us to be bold in what God commands us?
- How should we respond to Gospel opposition?
- We can often think of God's judgement as negative, but what are ways God shows his goodness through it?
- Read Numbers 14:11-25. What are some connections to the passage in Amos?