1. To whom is Peter writing this letter? In what ways can we experience persecution/suffering today?
2. Describe grace in your own words. Why is God said here to be "the God of all grace"?
3. How is this thought of great comfort for the believer and even an encouragement to the unbeliever?
4. Why do God's people suffer and should we be surprised if we are called to suffer for Christ's sake?
5. What is the end/goal of suffering in the hand of God?
6. What are the four promised graces/blessings which Peter sets before us? Do you know and experience these?
7. How do each of these promises play out practically in our lives?
