I.	God's eternal covenant of grace in the gospel of Jesus Christ changes everything. (Romans 8:29-30)
II.	God's saving grace is greater than our background and circumstances and He will work Christlikeness in all who are united by faith to Christ. (1 Cor. 6:11)
III.	Sterling character is rare and precious. (Proverbs 22:1)
IV.	Christian contentment, though a mystery, is also real and attainable. (Phil. 4:11)
V.	Humility is the Christian's glory. (James 4:6, Luke 14:11)
VI.	Difficulty in life need not leave us bitter; instead it can produce great sweetness. (Romans 8:28)
VII	. Devotion to husband, children, and family as well as excellence in the work of the home is not a loss of identity, but the path to true dignity. (Titus 2:4-5)
