Rightly Dividing the Word: Dispensationalism $Ephesians\ 1:10$

I. What is Dispensationalism?
A	4.	Dispensationalism comes from a literal interpretation of the Scripture.
		1. Literal interpretation
		2. Allegorical interpretation
I	3.	The word dispense means to give out.
		"God has interacted with man differently at different times in history in order to accomplish His will."
Ι	Э.	Dispensations in the Bible.
		1. Dispensation
		2. Ages
		3. Times
		4. Day
II. What are the Dispensations?
A	4.	How many are there?
F	3.	Dispensation of Innocence – Genesis 1-3
(Ξ.	Dispensation of Conscience – Genesis 4-8
Ι).	Dispensation of Human Government – Genesis 9-11
F	Ξ.	Dispensation of Promise – Genesis 12-Exodus 19
F	₹.	Dispensation of Law – Exodus 20-Matthew 27
(J.	Dispensation of the Church – Matthew 27-Revelation 3
F	I.	Dispensation of Judgement – Revelation 3-18
I		Dispensation of the Kingdom – Revelation 19-20
J	١.	Dispensation of Eternity – Revelation 21-22
ŀ	ζ.	There are several things that are common to each dispensation.
I	٠.	The dispensations can be illustrated in the life of a believer.
N	M.	The dispensations show man's need of salvation.
III. Why should we study the Bible Dispensationally?
A	4.	It is Biblical.
		It aids in Bible understanding through dispensational context.
(C.	Dispensationalism makes a clear distinction between Israel and the Church.
IV. Warnings about Dispensationalism.
		Do not make too sharp of a divide between dispensations.
		Salvation does not change from one dispensation to the next.
		Hyper Dispensationalism has many improper views of Scripture.
Ι	Э.	Dispensationalism is a framework that enables you to better study the Bible.	