INSTRUCTION GIVEN TO CHILDREN AND PARENTS ABOUT PROPER RELATIONSHIPS Ephesians 6:1-4

given	instruc	tion as to h	ow we teach and train children to like Christ.
I.	Child	/Parent rela	ationship
	Α.		; Col 3:20
		•	THE Christian family is the cradle and the fortress of the Christian faith. Obedience
		i.	s the law of childhood. It is, in great part, the child's religion, to be practiced "in the

			For the child to fulfill this Biblical command, the child must listen to the parent and submit to the parent's over them. This does not come It is something that must be taught to the child by the parents on a continuous and consistent basis. This process will be without its lifficult and frustrating times, but the ultimate reward for the parent's faithfulness n teaching the child this command will be worth all the effort of the parents.
