CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

"Woe to the Unfruitful Vineyard"
Isaiah 5

I. A _____ poem turns into courtroom charges over a well-endowed vineyard producing bad fruit for its loving patron (5:1-7).

II. _____ are giving to those engaging in conspicuous _____ and consumption of _____ (5:8-12).

III. God judges through _____ and death while the houses of the rich become the ruins through which nomads wander (5:13-17).

IV. Woes are pronounced for those who take _____ in their _____ (5:18-23).

V. God will burn Israel with fire, _____ for the nations as if He were whistling for his _____, and Israel's attackers will be most lethal (5:24-30).

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

"Woe to the Unfruitful Vineyard"
Isaiah 5

I. A _____ poem turns into courtroom charges over a well-endowed vineyard producing bad fruit for its loving patron (5:1-7).

II. _____ are giving to those engaging in conspicuous _____ and consumption of _____ (5:8-12).

III. God judges through _____ and death while the houses of the rich become the ruins through which nomads wander (5:13-17).

IV. Woes are pronounced for those who take _____ in their _____ (5:18-23).

V. God will burn Israel with fire, _____ for the nations as if He were whistling for his _____, and Israel's attackers will be most lethal (5:24-30).