Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Congregation of the
Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
Meeting at: 1008 West Erwin Avenue, McKinney, TX 75069

16 As for me, I will call upon God, and the Lord shall save me. 17 Evening and morning and at noon I will pray, and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice. 18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, for there were many against me. 19 God will hear, and afflict them, even He who abides from of old. Selah Because they do not change, therefore they do not fear God.

Psalm 55:16-19

WLC Q. 44. How doth Christ execute the office of a priest? A. Christ executeth the office of a priest, in his once offering himself a sacrifice without spot to God, to be a reconciliation for the sins of his people; and in making continual intercession for them.

WLC Q. 182. How doth the Spirit help us to pray? A. We not knowing what to pray for as we ought, the Spirit helpeth our infirmities, by enabling us to understand both for whom, and what, and how prayer is to be made; and by working and quickening in our hearts (although not in all persons, nor at all times, in the same measure) those apprehensions, affections, and graces, which are requisite for the right performance of that duty. WLC Q. 183. For whom are we to pray? A. We are to pray for the whole church of Christ upon earth; for magistrates and ministers; for ourselves, our brethren, yea, our enemies; and for all sorts of men living, or that shall live hereafter; but not for the dead, nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death.

- I. Christ’s intercession is perfectly particular
- II. Christ’s intercession is perfectly effectual
- III. Christ’s intercession is perfectly constant
- IV. Christ’s intercession is perfectly wise
- V. Christ’s intercession is perfectly loving
- VI. Christ’s intercession is perfectly just
- VII. Christ’s intercession is perfect in its end

(* Please stand)

WLC Q. 178. What is prayer? A. Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God, in the name of Christ, by the help of his Spirit; with confession of our sins, and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies. WLC Q. 179. Are we to pray unto God only? A. God only being able to search the hearts, hear the requests, pardon the sins, and fulfill the desires of all; and only to be believed in, and worshiped with religious worship; prayer, which is a special part thereof, is to be made by all to him alone, and to none other. WLC Q. 180. What is it to pray in the name of Christ? A. To pray in the name of Christ is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake; not by bare mentioning of his name, but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldness, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer, from Christ and his mediation.

- I. Drawing near to God in prayer
- II. Drawing near to God in life
- III. Drawing near to God for others
- IV. Drawing near to God is commanded
- V. Drawing near to God means that we will know God
