Galatians 5:19-21

“Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Electoral College – Choosing Electors

1. Electors are chosen in each state by a process prescribed by the state legislature. The only requirement is that they can't hold elected office. There is no connection to parties and there are no "candidates" for president.
2. Electors gather in their state capital on the day specified by Congress. They gathered at the same time in 50 different places so there was minimal ability for the process to be co-opted or for the electors to be influenced by one person or party.

Electoral College – Choosing Candidates

3. Electors chose two people, one of whom had to be a resident of another state.
4. The list of names was compiled, sealed, and sent to the President of the Senate.
5. In the presence of a joint session of Congress, the sealed lists of nominees from each state were opened and counted.

Electoral College – Choosing the President

6. In the usual situation, no one would have a majority of votes. The top 5 nominees were compiled and sent to the House who voted from those 5 people.
7. They voted by state. Each state had one vote. The winner was the president, the runner up the vice president.
