REMEMBER...

It was not the Roman Soldiers-nor the Jews, but God that put Him on the tree.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God...Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief. ~Isaiah 53:4,10

REMEMBER...

He not only took Barabbas' place on the cross, but your place and mine.

The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Brabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.~Matthew 27:21-22

REMEMBER...

It was not the nails that held Him there-it was love.

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the same, and is set down at the right hand of God. ~Hebrews 12:2

REMEMBER...

He chose the cross willingly, not forcefully.

Therefore doth my Father love me; because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have the power to lay it down, and I have the power to take it again. ~John 10:17-18

REMEMBER...

Calvary brought victory, not defeat.

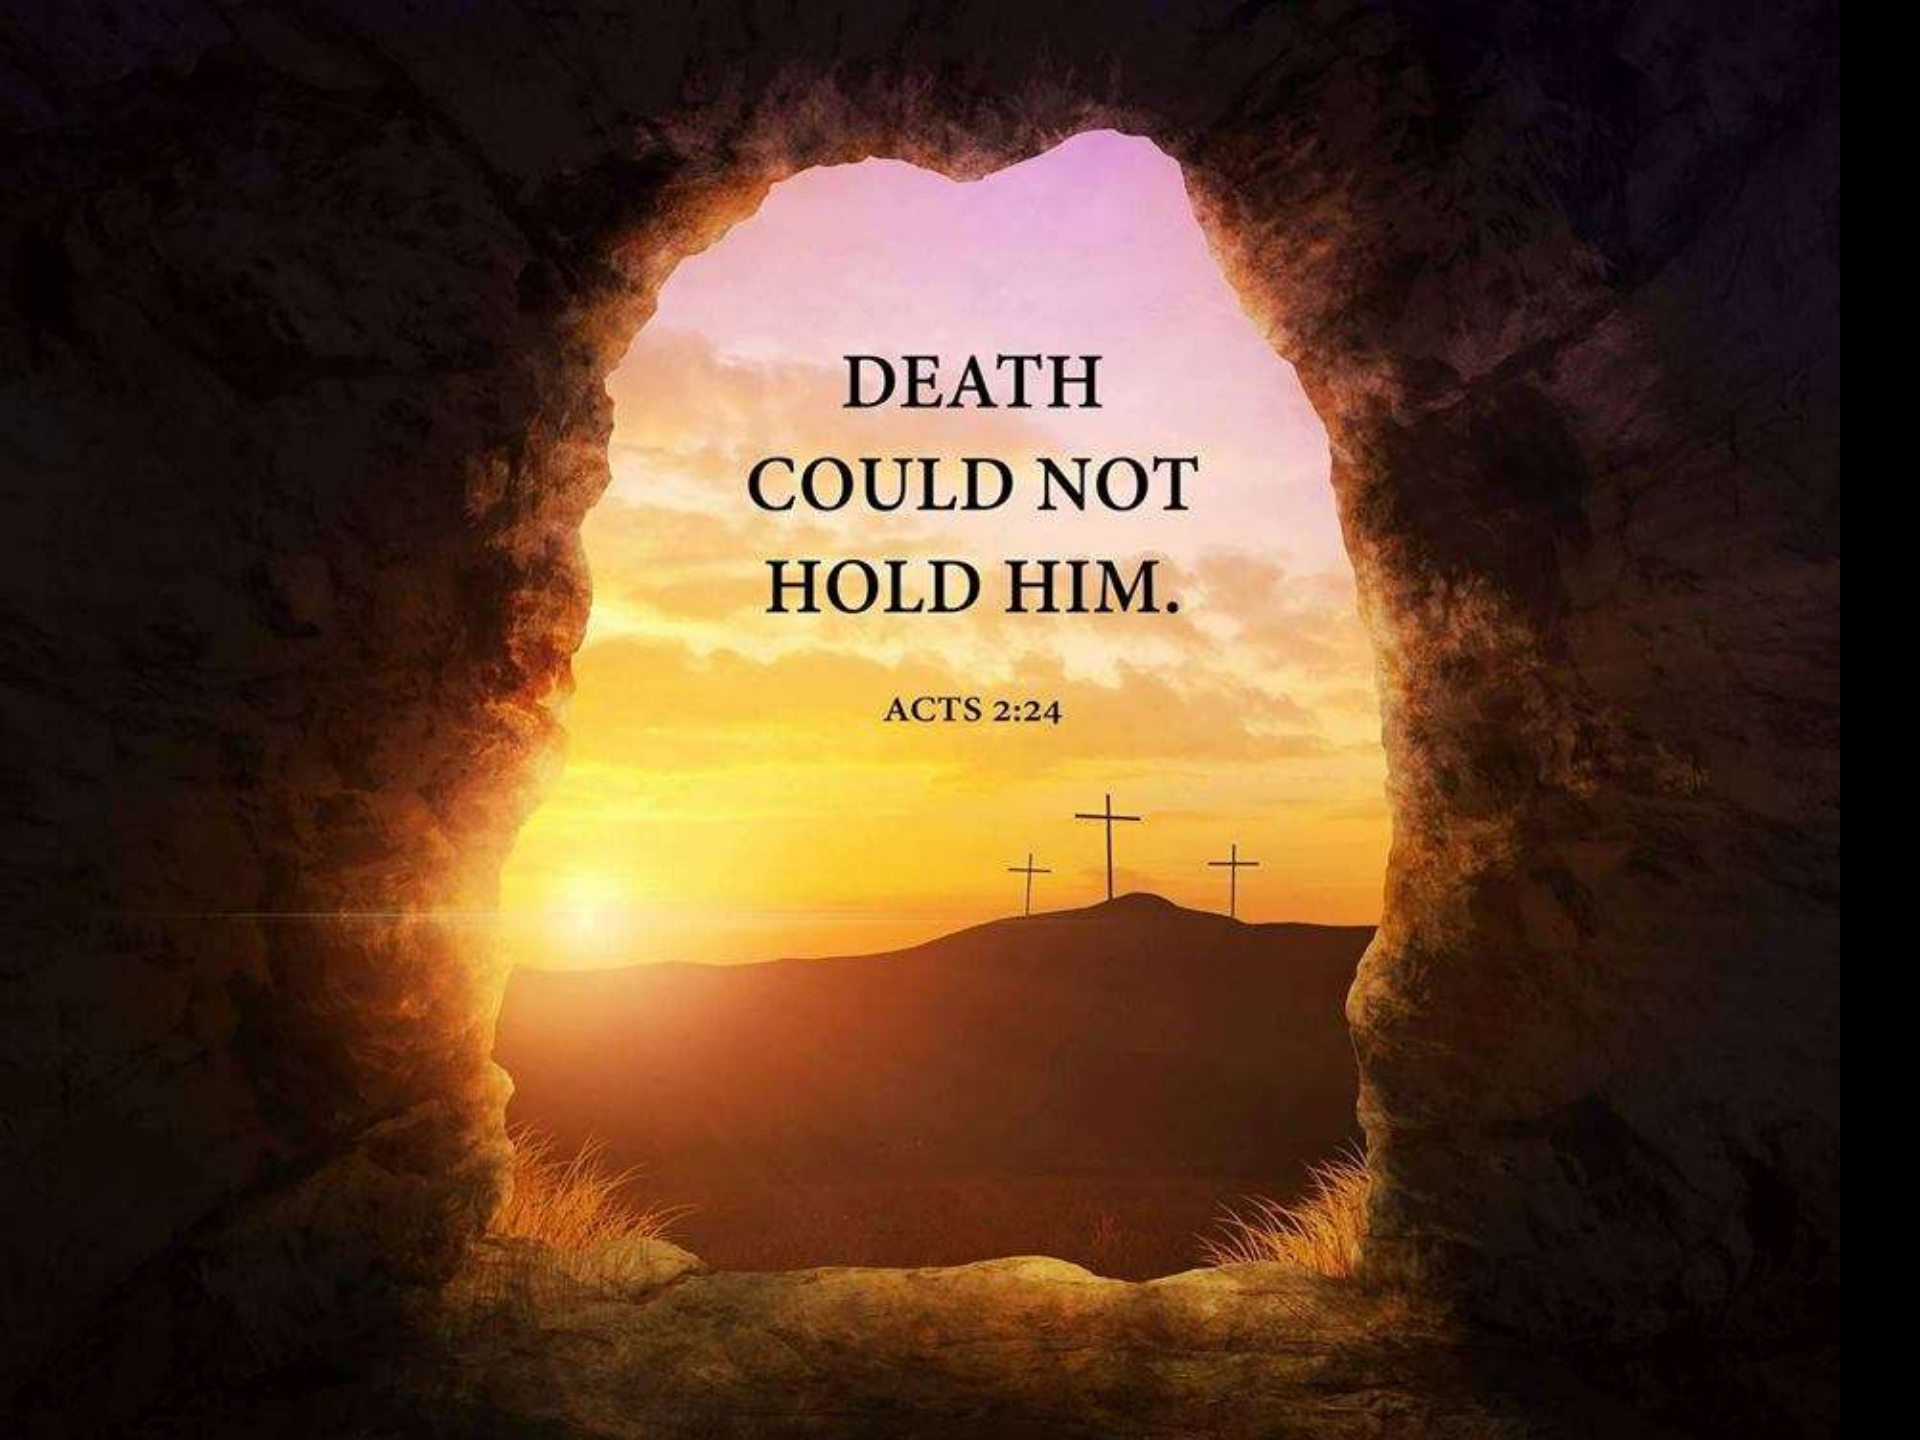

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. ~Isaiah 53:4,10

The image shows a view through a dark, irregular stone opening, likely a tomb entrance. The scene outside is a landscape at sunrise or sunset, with a bright sun low on the horizon. In the distance, three crosses are visible on a hill. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and purple. The text is centered in the upper half of the frame.

DEATH
COULD NOT HOLD HIM.
