

Rev. Douglas Kuiper Psalm 78:4-6 Edgerton PRC 11/15/15 PM

- Our approach to teaching our children is that of covenantal, Christian education.
- This method of education has a long history.
- It is good that we remind ourselves of what this approach entails, and why we use it.

Covenantal, Christian Education (1) Parental Instruction

- 1) Covenantal in Content.
  - a) The content of covenantal, Christian education is Jehovah; He is at the center of all the instruction
- 2) parents give.
  - a) It follows that the content is also the deeds of Jehovah - history - from a covenantal, Christian
- 3) perspective.
- 4) Covenantal in Activity.
  - a) Also the manner of this education is covenantal - the older generation teaches the younger, and the
- 5) whole church is interested in this education.
  - a) Our text records the promise of covenant believers to use this covenantal approach to educating
- 6) our youth.
