

1 CORINTHIANS 1:2-3

1. The local church is the physical manifestation of the church of God in a specific place.
2. It is made up of those who have been set apart in Christ to belong to God.
3. The members of the church are saints by virtue of His call (2 Timothy 2:10).

1 CORINTHIANS 1:2-3

4. All who call upon the name of the Lord become part of the church.
5. All who call on the name of the Lord come under the Lordship of Christ.
6. The Father and the Son provide grace and peace for those who belong to them.
