Preparing for Worship

* God Calls Us to Worship & Welcomes Us

Hebrews 10:19-25 (Pew Bible p. 1007)

* Seeking God's Blessing on Our Worship

* Praising Our God in Song

#468 My Faith Has Found a Resting Place

* Confessing Our Faith

Confession of Faith in Modern English XV.2-5

By repentance a sinner—seeing and sensing not only the danger but also the filthiness and hatefulness of his sins, because they are contrary to God's holy nature and his righteous law—turns from all his sins to God in the realization that God promises mercy in Christ to those who repent, and so grieves for and hates his sins that he determines and endeavors to walk with God in all the ways that he commands.

Although repentance is not to be relied on as any payment of the penalty for sin, or any cause of the pardon of sin (which is God's act of free grace in Christ); yet repentance is so necessary for all sinners, that no one may expect pardon without it.

No sin is so small that it does not deserve damnation. Nor is any sin so great that it can bring damnation upon those who truly repent.

No one should be satisfied with a general repentance; rather, it is everyone's duty to endeavor to repent of each particular sin, particularly.

Not By Works, but For Works

March 3, 2024

Given the corruption of human nature, salvation must be by God's grace.

Therefore, good works don't contribute as a cause or condition of salvation.

However, God fashions each believer and orders his or her life for the sake of good works.

Being alive in Jesus Christ means not only setting aside the old but walking in the new!

The musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The vocal line (top staff) features a melody that starts on a whole note chord, followed by a half note, and then a quarter note with a slur over the final two notes. The accompaniment (bottom staff) provides harmonic support with chords and single notes, mirroring the vocal line's phrasing.

Announcements

- Thank you for being part of our worship service this morning. Sunday School for all ages follows a time of fellowship downstairs after the service. - To close out the Lord's Day, we gather again at 5 PM. Join us as we meet with our Savior to sing, pray, and grow in God's Word. Evening service meets in Rm. 209. Though we recommend attending in person, you can access the service via Zoom at www.cornerstonepresbyterian.org/live-streaming-events by registering under "Sunday Evening Service".
