Main thought:

God commands us to practice following others who can by God's grace show us the faith and help us grow in what it means to be a follower of Jesus.

Application notes:

How to find someone worth following:

1. Look for time over content
2. Look for love above instruction
3. Look for guidance over position
4. Look for many over one
5. Look for the life of Jesus

Welcome and Fellowship Time

Open in Prayer

Ice-Breaker

- Share a high - something to celebrate from this past or coming week
- (And/Or) share a low - something that's been a burden or challenge for you in this past week.

Verse of the week

- What is a verse or truth from God's Word that has stood out to you this week from your own personal Bible reading?

Digging In

Read or recap 2 Kings 2:1-14, and discuss the following questions.

- What stood out to you from this passage or message?
- What did you know about Elijah and Elisha prior to Sunday's teaching? What is something new you learned about Elijah or Elisha?
- When you look at how Elisha was following Elijah, what does this relationship tell you about the importance of following others?

- Where else in scripture do you see examples of following modeled? How do these examples bring to light the importance of apprenticing and having someone to apprentice?
- Among the various reasons why we need someone to follow, which stood out to you the most? Why?
- Who are the people God has used to show you the faith?
- Which of the principles of how to find someone worth following did you resonate with the most? Why?
  1. Look for time over content
  2. Look for love above instruction
  3. Look for guidance over position
  4. Look for many over one
  5. Look for the life of Jesus

Application

- What application or take-away will you apply from the passage this week?

As a group pray as you consider the following:

- Thanksgiving for the people God has given us to follow
- Prayer to be the people God can use to help others see Jesus
