Quotation

"Wonder at his condescendency. It would be a wonder to see a beggar sit down with a prince; but here is a greater wonder. O what a sweet pavilion is love! There was never such a royal pavilion as Christ and his bride in the midst of his love! In the greatest of all his trouble, he looked toward you with love! Now, where are your thoughts of his love? Have ye higher thoughts of Christ now, than when ye sat down? O! who is like unto him, that is the King of saints? Will ye carry away with you these thoughts of him, who is the chiefest among ten thousand? Oh! have ye seen him? Alas! I fear he is gone. Of all the persons that ever ye saw, ye never saw his match! There is a soul-captivating look in the sight of his face, that if ye once saw him, ye would never desire to look on another." – Andrew Gray

Who we Are:

Westminster: As historic reformed believers, we recognize that in God's gracious providence he has provide His Church with many creeds and confessions. Our Church subscribes to the Westminster Standards – which encompass the teachings of the Bible in the best human expression.

Presbyterian: In our form of church government and practice we are presbyterian – simply put, we believe in a church government that is instituted by God and is entrusted to His ambassadors; ministers and elders in their several bodies.

Church: God is calling a people unto Himself, and He has a special care for his bride, the Church! Where His special care is seen in the provision of growth, worship, and practice as we are fitly joined together into a whole as the Bride of Christ.
