- I. The question uncovers a defective _____ .
- II. The question displays the _____ of God.
- III. The question invites a _____ examination.
- IV. The question offers an _____ .

Application Questions

- I. _____ : Where are you in your relationship with God today?
- II. _____ : Does the Lord's calling cause you to draw near to Him or to hide?
- III. _____ : Have you strayed from the Lord? Are you hiding from Him, and if so what and where are you hiding?
- IV. _____ : Will you draw near to Him today?

FURTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Genesis 3:1-6

What is the purpose of the serpent's question? How does this question attack God's Word and His character? How do you know that the discussion with the serpent was not for information?

Genesis 3:7-9

Why do you think God asked Adam where he was instead of demanding he come? What do these verses reveal about God's character? Why did Adam and Eve hide? Why would God seek out those who disobeyed Him? How do you know that God's question was not for information? What does this passage tell us about the spiritual needs of others? How can you apply God's approach in personal dealings with others? Is there someone with whom you need to seek resolution?

Psalms 139:1-12

What do these verses reveal about God? What specific areas of the psalmist's life are known to God? How does the psalmist respond to this realization? How do you respond to the same realization? Read vv. 23-24. What is the psalmist's response to meditating on God's knowledge and presence? How does that prayer impact his relationship with the Lord? Where are you currently in your relationship with the Lord? Are you willing to sincerely ask God to search your heart and thoughts? Will you pray that the Lord will use you to reconcile sinners to Himself?
