How does the author of Hebrew comfort the Christians who are being ostracized, persecuted, imprisoned, having their property taken and suffering reproach?

Earthy rejection by man means nothing compared to heavenly acceptance by God.

Sermon: Hebrews 13:13-16

1. What did Hebrews 13:13 teach the Christians to expect from those that had rejected Christ? _____
When you were saved, did anyone warn you about the hatred and reproach that you might receive? _____ _____ Many believers have not been taught to expect such harsh behavior from non-Christians, and are shocked by it, however it seems to be the norm for the audience of Hebrews (see Hebrews 10:33). How should passages like Heb. 13:13 and Heb. 10:33 affect Christian thinking today?

---

---

2. In this world, Christians can face suffering, tribulation, persecution, maligning, hatred, imprisonment, reproach, etc. When you read of Christians receiving such hardship in the Bible, they are comforted and encouraged differently than we often do today. For instance, how did the passages below comfort the Christians during their difficulties and what affect should such passages have on us?

- A. Romans 8:18-25
- B. 2 Cor. 5:1-5
- C. Phil. 1:24
- D. 2 Peter 3:10-13
- E. Heb. 11:9-10
- F. Heb. 11:13-16
- G. Heb. 12:22-24

H. Heb. 13:14

3. Read Hebrews 13:15. Sometimes Christians seem to limit the praise of God to Sunday morning worship. However, is anything said about singing in this passage? _____ Is anything said about Sunday Morning corporate worship? _____
_____ How can this passage challenge you to be a better worshipper of God?
4. What lessons about the worship of God can be learned from these two passages?

A. Eph. 5:19-20

---

---

B. Col. 3:15-16

---

---

- C. What are some practical ways that you could be more thankful to God, and more intentional about the regular sacrifice of praise?

---

---

- D. As a Christian, do you find that you pray for forgiveness, or praise God for forgiveness more often?
