Discussion Questions

The following questions are designed to be used by parents in discussing the sermon with their children, but can be used by anyone in discussing the sermon with others:

1. What stood out to you in this sermon? Why?
2. What is God's glory?
3. What does it mean to do something to the glory of God?
4. What sorts of things do you do which should be done to the glory of God?
5. Do you do things to the glory of God? Explain.
6. What does it mean for a person to be saved?
7. Paul says he did not seek his own advantage. Instead, he sought the advantage of others. What does this mean?
8. Give an example of a time you sought your own advantage rather than the advantage of others.
9. Whose example should we follow? Explain.
10. How can we become people who follow the commands in this passage? How does it start?

Going Deeper:

These questions are designed for the believer to use in prayer with his/her Lord, and in discussion with brothers and sisters in the Lord:

1. How did this sermon challenge your thinking, or grow your understanding?
2. What do you spend more time on than anything else? How can this be done to the glory of God?
3. Is there something you do that you are not doing to the glory of God? Should you replace this with something else, or should you change the way you do it so that you do it to the glory of God?
4. Galatians 1:10 speaks against trying to please man. But 1 Corinthians 10:33 commends trying to please other people. Clearly Paul is speaking of two very different things in these passages. What is the difference? Which one do you tend toward more? How is the heart attitude behind being a man-pleaser (Gal 1:10) different from the heart attitude behind living as Paul instructs in 1 Corinthians 10:32-33?
5. How should 1 Corinthians 11:1 inform the way we view and relate to spiritual leaders, including our elders and deacons, other preachers of God's word, and Christian parents?
6. Christ is our ultimate example in the matters taught in 10:31-33. What is one aspect of Christ's example that stands out to you right now? Why?
7. What is the primary way your heart should be affected by this sermon this week? What is the primary way your actions should be affected?
