Missionaries: *From the Kanes:--As they tend to do yearly, the village of Thuey is doing a village sacrifice with hopes of good crops this year. Each person in the village is to give money to help buy a cow and pig to sacrifice to Satan. After it is sacrificed the village has a two day long drinking and feasting binge on the sacrificed animals. In the past, Vuut and his wife, the only Christians in this village, have donated money to the sacrifice as if it is a village tax, but do not partake in any of the ceremonies. This year, of his own accord, Vuut is going to refuse to donate money to the sacrifice because he believes that God is displeased with participating in any way with the sacrifice. Everyone has already been warned that if they refuse to give, any "evil" that befalls them or their family will be blamed on their refusal to give and they will be denied justice from the village elders if there is a dispute between them and another villager (theft, lawsuit of any kind, etc.). Please pray that God will give Vuut wisdom as he talks to the village leader and that the village leader will see that they have gone above and beyond to contribute in any other village project and not believe his refusal is a sign of greed. Pray this situation will come out for the furtherance of the gospel.
