

Personal Evangelism
03 – Foundations: The Secondary Governing Motivation
1 Corinthians 13:3; Matthew 22:37-39; Romans 13:10
sermonaudio.com/prbcny 04/16/2023
www.prbcny.com

- I. The Secondary Governing Motivation for Personal Evangelism: The Proposition
 - A. Love for God as Our Secondary Motivation is Essential to All Personal Evangelism

 - B. Love for God as Our Secondary Motivation Must Be the Governing Principle for All Personal Evangelism

- II. The Secondary Motivation for Personal Evangelism: The Ramifications
 - A. Love for others will create in us a burden for those who are in the state of sin to see the glory of Jesus Christ, the only deliverer for sinners.

 - B. Love for others will compel us to place a high priority on knowing the individual and their peculiar need to provide direction to our personal evangelism.

 - C. Love for others will always be following the Golden Rule as calibrated to the sensitivities of the other person.

 - D. Love for others must guide our personal evangelism according to what God's Law teaches concerning our moral duty to our fellow human beings.