OPENING

“Who made thee a prince and a judge over us?” (Ex.2:14)

It had been forty years since Moses had slain the Egyptian and then had to escape Egypt to save his own life.

In the meantime, he had married, had children, and then while watching the flock in the “backside of the desert” (Ex. 3:1), he met God at the burning bush and was given a new assignment.

At 80 years old, Moses’ new assignment required him leading the nation Israel out of bondage to the Promise Land. It was not going to be easy for him, but it would be rewarding.

He was to be “a prince and a judge over” a new nation.

II. The Exodus (Exodus 5 – 15)

A. Plagues (Exodus 5 – 12)

“The first step in the effort to secure freedom for Israel was an audience with Pharaoh.

Inasmuch as the Egyptians were committed to the doctrine that Pharaoh was the offspring of the sun, and thereby God personified such an appearance was a major undertaking.”

A. Plagues (Exodus 5 – 12)

“Pharaoh rejected God and God hardened his heart and made an example of him (Ex. 4:21).”

“Here, again, we see God’s way with man, as it has been throughout history.

God loves, calls, and stretches out His hand to sinners, and those who do not regard His call are rejected, and those who harken to His call are saved.

Isa 66:4

I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

2Th 2:10-12 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
