Praxis

1. Consider what would happen if Ukrainian President Zelensky were killed, then a week later came back to life? Just reflect on that for a bit, and then ask yourselves what should be the implications for we who follow Christ?
2. What difference does it make (historically, theologically) that Jesus came back from the grave, rather than just dying for sins and then going back to heaven?
3. How should the fact that Jesus is alive and constantly with(in) all who love Him impact how we respond to praise, to grief, to need, to gospel opportunity in our lives?
4. Challenge Question: How might you give emphasis to Jesus' resurrection when you next share the Gospel message? Craft out the words...
