Adult | “The Life of Moses” (teacher: Elder Adam Ruf)

- The life of Moses can at times seem like a mystery. All that most people know about Moses is the crossing of the Red Sea or what is depicted from a Disney movie. Yet the life of Moses is more than that. It is a life of trusting and following God. This Sunday, Elder Adam will continue to take us through a deep dive in the life of Moses from out of Hebrews 11:23-29 where we’ll learn truths about a life of faith in God.

  - ♦ Apply: By trusting that God’s plan is best.
  - ♦ This Week: As a family, read Numbers 13-14.
  - ♦ Next Week: Numbers 16

“Everything that a man leans upon but God will be a dart that will certainly pierce his heart through and through.... He that leans only upon the bosom of Christ lives the highest, choicest, safest, and sweetest life.”

The Core Values of HBC help us in accomplishing our mission of proclaiming Christ to make followers of Christ and remaining a healthy church.

We value instruction because we believe that one of the added benefits that comes with being a follower of Christ is learning what it means to follow Christ. In other words, the person is transformed and enters a new relationship with God and therefore must know God, His will, and His way. The means that God has provided for this is the Word of God—the Bible. We value the Bible as the supreme, authoritative, inerrant, inspired, infallible, holy Scripture, that is perfect for teaching, counseling, singing, correction, proclaiming (preaching), and for training in righteousness. We believe and value the Bible as the time-tested product of the Holy Spirit. We believe that the meaning of the Scripture is to be explained clearly. By this, the Holy Spirit governs the church and the believer for edification for a life of faithfulness and godliness and gives the enablement to obey Christ’s commands (Ps. 19:7-14; Is 40:7; 66:2; Jer. 9:23,24; Mt. 4:4; Col 3:16; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Heb 4:12; 2 Pet. 1:21).
