

“Covenantal Love: The Lifeblood of the Church, Part 2”

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a

Introduction:

Main Point: The Apostle summarized his point thus “Now abides faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. Charity (agape love) is like the life blood of your body. Without it you would die. This is also true of the church as a whole. If Christ examined our hearts and lives, what would He find?”

I. The longsuffering love of God

II. The kindness and love of God in Christ

III. Redeemed to be an instrument of God’s charity

Conclusion:
