Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, and having a High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

WLC Q. 104. What are the duties required in the first commandment? ...loving God...

WLC Q. 129. What is required of superiors towards their inferiors? A. It is required of superiors, according to that power they receive from God, and that relation wherein they stand, to love, pray for, and bless their inferiors... WLC Q. 135. What are the duties required in the sixth commandment? ...by charitable thoughts, love, compassion, meekness, gentleness, kindness... WLC Q. 83. What is the communion in glory with Christ which the members of the invisible Church enjoy in this life? A. The members of the invisible Church have communicated to them in this life the first-fruits of glory with Christ, as they are members of him their head, and so in him are interested in that glory which he is fully possessed of; and, as an earnest thereof, enjoy the sense of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Ghost, and hope of glory...

- I. The love of Christ in service
- II. The love of Christ in dying
- III. The love of Christ in leaving
- IV. The love of Christ in particular
- V. The love of Christ in eternity

WCF Chapter 22, Of Lawful Oaths and Vows. 4. An oath is to be taken in the plain and common sense of the words, without equivocation or mental reservation. It can not oblige to sin; but in any thing not sinful, being taken, it binds to performance, although to a man's own hurt: nor is it to be violated, although made to heretics or infidels [2 Samuel 21:1]. WLC Q 113. What are the sins forbidden in third commandment? ... all sinful cursings, oaths, vows, and lots; violating of our oaths and vows, if lawful; and fulfilling them, if of things unlawful. WLC Q 144. What are the duties required in the ninth commandment? ... keeping of lawful promises. WLC Q 151. What are those aggravations that make some sins more heinous than others? ... if against means, mercies, judgments, light of nature, conviction of conscience, public or private admonition, censures of the church, civil punishments; and our prayers, purposes, promises, vows, covenants, and engagements to God or men.

- I. God covenants with underserving people (Gen. 10:6-20, 15:12-21, 48:20-22)
- II. God is longsuffering toward sinful men (Gen. 15:16)
- III. God will destroy His enemies (Gen. 15:16)
- IV. God will bless His people at the expense of His enemies (Gen. 15:17-21)
- V. God overturns the work of His enemies to benefit His people (Gen. 48:22)
- VI. God hears the prayers of His people (Ex. 3:7-8)
- VII. God warns His people against idolatry (Ex. 23:23-33, Deut. 7:1-6)
- VIII. God is sovereign (Deut. 20:10-18)
- IX. God makes a clear distinction between His people and His enemies
