*The great and powerful goodness of God
in removing the waters of the Flood.*

We see:

1. The great goodness of God in remembering Noah, and every living thing.
2. The powerful goodness of God in restoring the earth for man.

Questions for discussion: [see on the table]

The church is called to be a confessing church, that she may be, the pillar and ground of the truth (1Tim. 3:15,16)

The Heidelberg Catechism

27. Q. What do you understand by the providence of God?

A. God's providence is His almighty and ever present power,[1] whereby, as with His hand, He still upholds heaven and earth and all creatures,[2] and so governs them that leaf and blade, rain and drought, fruitful and barren years, food and drink, health and sickness, riches and poverty,[3] indeed, all things, come not by chance[4] but by His fatherly hand.[5]

[3] Jer. 5:24; Acts 14:15-17; John 9:3; Prov. 22:2. [4] Prov. 16:33.

[5] Matt. 10:29.

28. Q. What does it benefit us to know that God has created all things and still upholds them by His providence?

A. We can be patient in adversity,[1] thankful in prosperity,[2] and with a view to the future we can have a firm confidence in our faithful God and Father that no creature shall separate us from His love;[3] for all creatures are so completely in His hand that without His will they cannot so much as move.[4]

Questions for discussion
[Sermon: Genesis 8:1-14]

1. What does it mean when it says God remembered Noah?

2. Does this mean that God changes (after all!)?

3. Where did the ark land, and what is significant about that?

4. How is the power of God shown in the Flood?

5. What day of the year was the surface of the earth dry again?

6. For what ultimate purpose does God use His power to end the Flood?

For what two purposes is God (now) preserving the earth?
