

Who are you, Who is God to you?

Jacob-the Haran years (Gen 28-31)

I. God's Faithfulness (Gen 28:10-15)

- A. God kept His word regarding _____
- B. God _____ the covenant promise to Jacob.
- C. God _____ to be with Jacob, provide for him and return him to the land.

II. Jacob in Haran (Gen 29 - 31)

- A. Jacob walks by _____ and rests in his own _____ to establish himself.
- B. Jacob gives no thought to _____ in the matter of Rachel.
- C. Jacob's _____ drive him to step further out of the will of God and into a polygamous marriage.
- D. Our selfish, self-willed discissions to find purpose and fulfillment _____ of God's will won't only cause ourselves heartache and harm but also to those around us.

- We cannot control the outcome of our sin

E. Jacob again _____ independent of his position and without regard to God's will and enters into a new agreement with Laban.

F. Laban seeks to _____ Jacob's plans, but God mercifully delivers Jacob.

III. Your God, My God, The God of Jacob

A. God is always only _____ to you His child, and will never forsake you.

B. God sees and _____ when you suffer.

C. God _____ gives up on you for your benefit and His glory

D. Though we may _____ Him, God is not ashamed of His children.

E. God _____ desires that you and I find our confidence, security, our senses of purpose, strength, and meaning, in what we are and have in Christ.