

I. Introduction.

II. Why is it important for us to address the place of women in the home and in the church?

- A. It is easy for women to be confused in this day and age.
  - 1. Our culture has undergone a massive change in the past generation.
  - 2. Many evangelical churches have followed culture in denying any difference between the roles of men and women in the home and church (egalitarianism).
  - 3. Christian women need to have a biblical understanding of their unique identity.
- B. Christian women are under intense pressure from the world: feminism and sexualization. They need a different vision of womanhood.
- C. Christian women need to be discipled as women.
  - 1. Men and women face different kinds of temptations. I Ti. 2:9-10,14-15 5:11-14
  - 2. Many Christian women need help in dealing with sinful perfectionism. He. 10:14
  - 3. Women need to be equipped in the unique aspects of biblical womanhood.
- D. The health of our churches and families depends upon our having women who are prepared to fulfill biblical mandates for womanhood.
  - 1. We need to avoid the opposite danger of reacting against unbiblical feminism by focusing upon what women cannot do, or being more restrictive than Scripture.
  - 2. The male church leaders are responsible to ensure that women are equipped and encouraged.

III. What are the responsibilities of older women in the church? Titus 2:3

- A. The context of Titus 2:3-5.
- B. Older women should mentor younger women.
  - 1. Relationships among women are important.
