

In Romans 13:11-14 Paul presents a 2-point exhortation admonishing us to live a life that is proper for our status as saints.

- I. Because the end is near (vs. 11c, 12a) . . .
- II. You must wake up (v. 11b) and be obedient.
 - A. Be transformed, not conformed (11:a).
 - B. Cast off and put on (v. 12b).
 - C. Walk as in the daytime, not nighttime (v. 13).
 - D. Put on Christ, don't gratify the desires of your flesh (v. 14).

In Romans 13:11-14 Paul presents a 2-point exhortation admonishing us to live a life that is proper for our status as saints.

- I. Because the end is near (vs. 11c, 12a) . . .
- II. You must wake up (v. 11b) and be obedient.
 - A. Be transformed, not conformed (11:a).
 - B. Cast off and put on (v. 12b).
 - C. Walk as in the daytime, not nighttime (v. 13).
 - D. Put on Christ, don't gratify the desires of your flesh (v. 14).