1. We live in a world where there are many challenges to our _____.

- a. _____ around us sometimes seek to tear down our faith.
- b. Failure to make good use of opportunities you have to _____ to people in need can be disheartening.
- c. Physical _____ can bring discouragement.
- d. _____ standing problems that never seem to improve can breed hopelessness.
- e. The destructive schemes of _____ are an ever present danger.
- f. The _____ that we harbor within our own hearts are a hindrance in addressing the issues of life.

2. In spite of our _____, through Christ we can still live our life in faith.

- a. We need to openly _____ our weakness and then lean fully on Christ.

"'Help my unbelief,' meaning, 'Continue moment by moment and day by day to come to my _____."
- William Hendriksen

- b. Actively _____ the faith that you have.

"What shall we do with our faith? We must use it. Weak, trembling, doubting, feeble as it may be, we must _____ it. We must not wait till it is great, perfect and mighty, but like the man before us, turn it to account, and hope that one day it will be more strong."
- J.C. Ryle

- c. Confess what the Bible says is _____.

- d. _____.

*"Where there is little faith, there is little _____.
Conversely, where there is an abundance of genuine, persevering faith, there is also fervent, unrelenting prayer."* - William Hendriksen
