

“Big Money in Religion and Life”

1 Timothy 6:3-10

- a. The desire to be rich represents a temptation and a senseless and harmful _____ that marks you for destruction (6:9).
- b. The love of money can cause you to rationalize your _____ from the faith (6:10).

- I. False teachers are those whose teaching is inconsistent with godly _____ (6:3).
- a. Though surely their words and eloquence were powerful, their _____ is null and impotent (6:4).
 - b. Friction follows false teachers as financial _____, not the love of Christ, drives their motives (6:5).

- II. In addressing the greed of false teachers, Paul gives a principle that applies to all believers—Godliness with _____ is great gain (6:6).
- a. Money is to be viewed in all of its temporal _____ (6:7).

Luke 12:13-34

- b. Paul repeats a common quotation about contentment—having food and clothing, with these we will be _____ (6:8).

- III. The desire to be _____ is a destructive force in your life.

“Big Money in Religion and Life”

1 Timothy 6:3-10

- a. The desire to be rich represents a temptation and a senseless and harmful _____ that marks you for destruction (6:9).
- b. The love of money can cause you to rationalize your _____ from the faith (6:10).

I. False teachers are those whose teaching is inconsistent with godly _____ (6:3).

- a. Though surely their words and eloquence were powerful, their _____ is null and impotent (6:4).
- b. Friction follows false teachers as financial _____, not the love of Christ, drives their motives (6:5).

II. In addressing the greed of false teachers, Paul gives a principle that applies to all believers—Godliness with _____ is great gain (6:6).

- a. Money is to be viewed in all of its temporal _____ (6:7).

Luke 12:13-34

- b. Paul repeats a common quotation about contentment—having food and clothing, with these we will be _____ (6:8).

III. The desire to be _____ is a destructive force in your life.

“Big Money in Religion and Life”

1 Timothy 6:3-10

- a. The desire to be rich represents a temptation and a senseless and harmful _____ that marks you for destruction (6:9).
- b. The love of money can cause you to rationalize your _____ from the faith (6:10).

- I. False teachers are those whose teaching is inconsistent with godly _____ (6:3).
- a. Though surely their words and eloquence were powerful, their _____ is null and impotent (6:4).
 - b. Friction follows false teachers as financial _____, not the love of Christ, drives their motives (6:5).

- II. In addressing the greed of false teachers, Paul gives a principle that applies to all believers—Godliness with _____ is great gain (6:6).
- a. Money is to be viewed in all of its temporal _____ (6:7).

Luke 12:13-34

- b. Paul repeats a common quotation about contentment—having food and clothing, with these we will be _____ (6:8).

- III. The desire to be _____ is a destructive force in your life.

“Big Money in Religion and Life”

1 Timothy 6:3-10

- a. The desire to be rich represents a temptation and a senseless and harmful _____ that marks you for destruction (6:9).
- b. The love of money can cause you to rationalize your _____ from the faith (6:10).

- I. False teachers are those whose teaching is inconsistent with godly _____ (6:3).
- a. Though surely their words and eloquence were powerful, their _____ is null and impotent (6:4).
 - b. Friction follows false teachers as financial _____, not the love of Christ, drives their motives (6:5).

- II. In addressing the greed of false teachers, Paul gives a principle that applies to all believers—Godliness with _____ is great gain (6:6).
- a. Money is to be viewed in all of its temporal _____ (6:7).

Luke 12:13-34

- b. Paul repeats a common quotation about contentment—having food and clothing, with these we will be _____ (6:8).

- III. The desire to be _____ is a destructive force in your life.

“Big Money in Religion and Life”

1 Timothy 6:3-10

- a. The desire to be rich represents a temptation and a senseless and harmful _____ that marks you for destruction (6:9).
- b. The love of money can cause you to rationalize your _____ from the faith (6:10).

- I. False teachers are those whose teaching is inconsistent with godly _____ (6:3).
- a. Though surely their words and eloquence were powerful, their _____ is null and impotent (6:4).
 - b. Friction follows false teachers as financial _____, not the love of Christ, drives their motives (6:5).

- II. In addressing the greed of false teachers, Paul gives a principle that applies to all believers—Godliness with _____ is great gain (6:6).
- a. Money is to be viewed in all of its temporal _____ (6:7).

Luke 12:13-34

- b. Paul repeats a common quotation about contentment—having food and clothing, with these we will be _____ (6:8).

- III. The desire to be _____ is a destructive force in your life.