Scripture: Matthew 1:18-25

Summary-Once we “know” something we often feel that we are ready for something new. In the meantime, we are bored with the foundational elements we are revisiting. Today’s passage is one of those basic foundational passages of the faith that we “know”. We have heard it so many times during the Christmas season, with great emphasis on the virgin birth. As a result, some of the wonder and awe have worn off.*
