

Romans 6:3-4

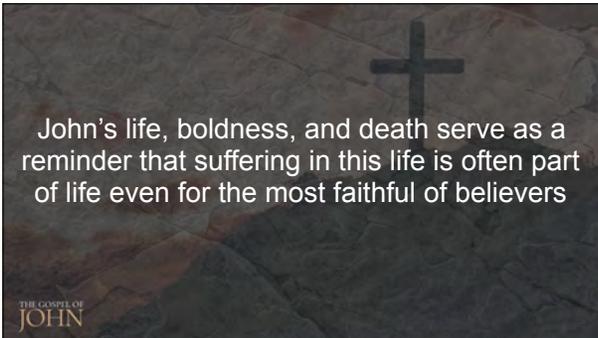

Matthew 28:19

Have you been saved and subsequently baptized?

If not, why not?

Whether it is the ministry of a pastor, a church, a missionary, or your personal ministry to others, let the heart of it be, "He must increase, but I must decrease."

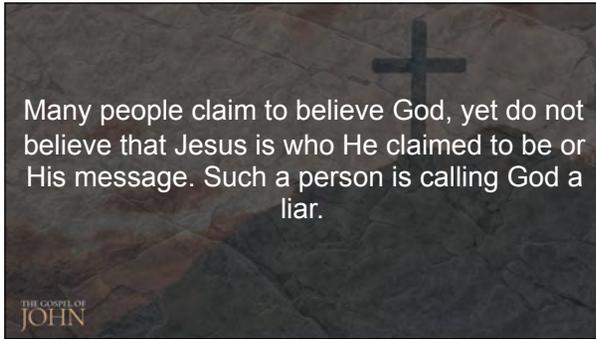

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

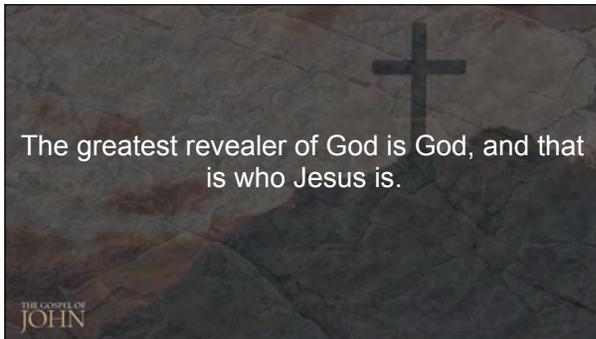

John 1:9-12

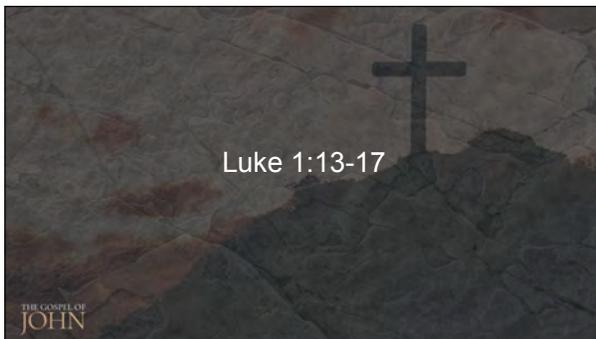

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

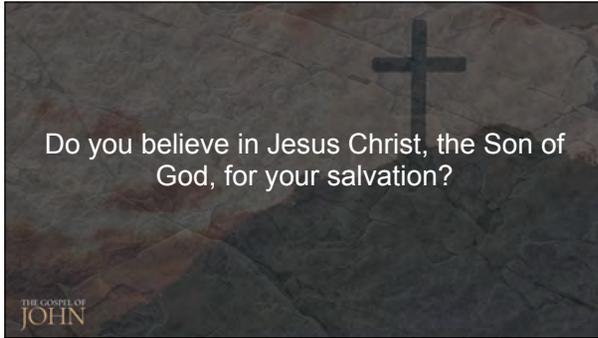

Those who believe Jesus, believe God, and believe truth. Those who do not believe Jesus, do not believe God, and believe a lie.

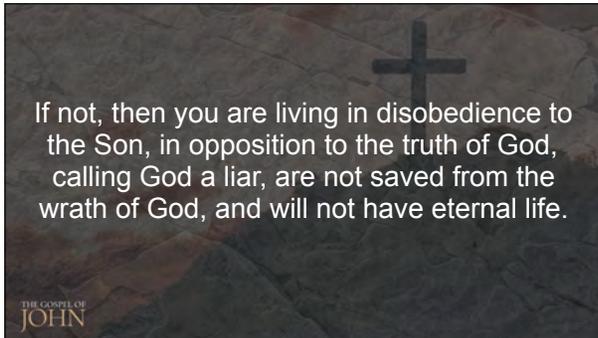

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

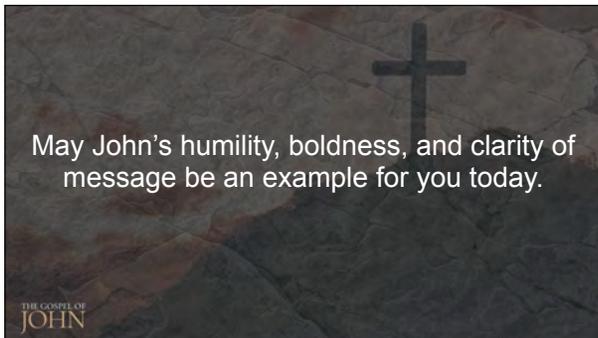

Series: John

Sermon: John 3:22-36

1. In John 3:36, John the Baptist was clear with his message that one must believe in Jesus or else face the wrath of God. This kind of clarity was not unusual for John. See Luke 3:15-17. What is his point in this message?

Some people read this passage, believe that baptism by fire is a good thing, and even pray for it. What do you think? Is the baptism of fire something you would want to pray for? Why or why not?

2. John the Baptist knew that his role was to usher people to the Bridegroom. He did this by clearly calling on them to repent of their sin and to believe in the Messiah. Are Christians in general as bold and as clear as John the Baptist was with his message? How can you strive to exemplify John in the way that you communicate about Christ to others?

3. In John 3:27 John alludes to the sovereignty of God. For examples of God's sovereignty see the following passages and list a key point for each:

A. Isaiah 46:9-10 _____

B. Psalm 115:3 _____

C. Job 42:1-2 _____

D. Eph. 1:11 _____

4. Read Rom. 8:27-28. How can you as a Christian be comforted by the sovereignty of God?

5. Acknowledging an attribute or attributes of God was a common way for the people of God to pray and to worship Him, which should serve as a reminder for us to do the same. Read 1 Chronicles 29:10-13. How could acknowledging God as David does in this prayer be of help to you?

6. Read over Psalm 33 and list some attributes and characteristics of God that He is praised for in this Psalm.

Lastly, in your closing prayer today, try to incorporate some of the attributes of God.
