The Arrival of the Wise Men

Why would Gentile wise men, possibly from hundreds of miles away, be interested in traveling so far to worship a baby Jewish King?

The Arrival of the Wise Men

1. The Magi were from the East
2. 500 years before Jesus was born, there were some Jews who were taken as captives to live in the East, first under the Babylonian Empire then under the Persian Empire (Daniel 1 & 5)
3. Daniel was one of those Jewish captives who lived in the East and rose to a position of great influence and that as a prophet, he prophesied about the time of the coming of the Messiah, 483 years later (Daniel 9:25).
4. The word Magi shows up in Daniel 2:2, 10. These magi are listed with other enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers in the king's court in Babylon.

The Alarm of King Herod

Matthew 14:26

“...when the disciples saw Jesus walking on the sea and it says, “they were terrified, and said, ‘It is a ghost!’ and they cried out in fear.”
