THE POWER OF THE CHURCH

is purely ministerial and declarative.

*She is only to hold forth the doctrine,
enforce the laws, and execute the government which Christ has given to her.*

*She is to add nothing of her own to,
and to subtract nothing
from what her Lord has established.*

Discretionary power she does not possess.

James H. Thornwell (19th century Southern Presbyterian)

There is a meal following the morning worship service. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
