

" The Harvest is Plenteous "

("A HEART FOR THE MULTITUDES ")
Matthew 9:35-38

INTRODUCTION: V. 35

Christ had compassion on the lost.

(He felt their sorrow, He cared, and He encourages you to care)

I. The Occasion for Christ's Compassion (v. 36a) ("When He saw the multitudes")

- A. He saw the real needs of people

- B. He saw the real need for laborers (v. 37-38)

II. The Reasons for Christ's Compassion (v. 36b)

- A. He saw hopeless people with no strength
("fainted")

- B. He saw helpless people with no protection
("scattered abroad")

III. The Response of Christ's Compassion (v. 37-38) ("Then saith He. . . the harvest truly is plenteous. . . pray ye")

- A. He shared His burden (v. 37)

- B. He urged for prayer (v. 38)

CONCLUSION:

