

TEXT: PROVERBS 14:7

TITLE: Who Are Your Friends?

→ Great Method to Reading Proverbs:

Read the chapter matching the day of the month. In a month's time, we would work our way through the book, as 7/12 months have 31 days and Proverbs has 31 chapters.

→ Questions to Ponder:

"Who are your friends?"

"Who are the friends who shape your thinking?"

"Who are those in whom you confide?"

→ New Testament background principles:

→ 1 Corinthians 5:6—a little sin affects a lot of people. (Leaven = yeast, works its way through the whole batch of dough!) The whole Corinthian Church was affected by the gross sin of one member.

→ 1 Corinthians 15:33—evil company defiles good ethics.

→ Now, consider this from Proverbs:

→ Proverbs 12:26—wise choices in friendships are vital!

→ Proverbs 13:20—wisdom chooses wise friends!

*** Wise believers will avoid certain bad influences:

1. A F_____ Person

→ Proverbs 14:7

A. In him/her there is no k_____

B. In him there is no w_____ speech

C. In him/her there is a mockery of s_____—v. 9

D. From him/her one should "g____"

→ What are markers of folly in people?

The Hebrew word cesiyi (לִּצְיָי) means "stupid fellow, dullard, fool" and it occurs 49 times in the book of Proverbs.
