

You Are One
Galatians 3:26-28

Main Point:

Since you are one with other believers in Christ, be united with them, embrace their differences, and seek their fellowship and help.

2. This means you should be a Christian who is united with others.

3. This means you should be a Christian who embraces the differences of others.

4. This means you should be a Christian who seeks the fellowship and help of others.
