Is the end near for Hillary Clinton? That actually may end up being the case unless Michael Sussman is found not guilty of everything. For the record, the government against Sussman has rested its case. The case, brought to court by John Durham and team, has revealed important facts that were consistently denied by those on the Left as well as mainstream media bureaus. Anything Hillary was said to have done was considered fake news.

It was originally alleged that Donald J. Trump, then candidate for president, was in bed with Russia through a secret channel of Alpha Bank (Kremlin), to allegedly gain their help in winning office. This accusation was met with gasps of surprise and condemnation by Hillary herself as well as many others on the Left. It appears that this allegation was completely fabricated by Team Hillary and that Hillary not only knew of the lies, but approved them and paid for their development using people like Michael Sussman, Robby Mook, John Podesta - all members of her election campaign - as well as others.

According to Sussman's own testimony (please read Greg Rubini's article that details Sussman's own admissions from court transcripts), he approached James Baker (FBI high-ranking lawyer), to introduce him to certain information he had as a "concerned citizen" and guaranteed Baker that he did not represent any client. Well, it turns out that this was a lie. Proof of his lies were supplied to the court showing that Sussman went to Baker on behalf of Hillary Clinton. For more on this from another perspective, please read The Real Toria Brooke thread. There was actually a paper and billing trail from Sussman to Clinton and the many hours he billed her for his work to create the allegations about Trump.

James Baker received the paperwork and electronic data supplied by Sussman and turned it over to two top forensic investigators at the FBI. It took them all of ONE day to determine that the allegations against Trump were completely bogus; fully made up.

Yet, what transpired after this? The Robert Mueller "investigation" into Trump that took a year or so and over $30 million taxpayer dollars to ultimately come up with a "not guilty" of anything that would lead to impeachment. In spite of this, people still continue to (wrongly) refer to Trump as having been impeached. He was not impeached at all. Bill Clinton was actually impeached, however, he was not removed from office because there were not enough votes at the time in Congress. Bill Clinton was literally impeached. Trump was not impeached at all.

Hillary wanted to be president and seemed to understand that people preferred Donald J. Trump over her. So, in an attempt to derail him, the allegations of Russian collusion with Trump were created. When this failed to keep him from being elected, things continued with various allegations designed to shipwreck his term in office. In fact, false and libelous allegations dogged Trump for the entire four years of his presidency and continue to dog him today. They couldn't keep him from becoming president and they could not successfully impeach him to remove him from office. When these did not work, it became "let's just continue to make life miserable for him and those who support him!"

So what will happen with Hillary? Well, the government case against Sussman may actually involve much more than just Sussman. There are rumors of a complete criminal conspiracy that was directed at Trump. If this is the case, then it could very well mean that Hillary was the head of the snake. If so, it could mean that she will ultimately be arrested and charged with criminal conspiracy. It appears that she started this whole ball rolling by paying people to create false allegations against Trump. Not only did she smear a candidate for political office, but she continued to destroy him while he was President. The idea of a vast criminal conspiracy directed at Trump is looking more and more like reality. Time will tell. Depending upon what continues to come out, Trump may be in a perfect position to sue Hillary and actors who worked with her to bring down Trump. If Hillary was involved in this, it's clear that she is a despicable human being and will stop at nothing to get what she wants. If that is the case, she belongs in prison for a long time as do those who helped her.

But this is the way the Left rolls. They'll lie as often as they feel the need and even quote Scripture when they can twist it for their perceived benefit. They'll lie against people they don't like or who are in their way in an attempt to bring them down. But again, this behavior is not new at all. In fact, it's as old as time.

Nehemiah 6 highlights an interesting situation in which "Leftists" were at it, attacking Nehemiah with fake situations and lies in order to derail him from doing the Lord's work. Let's take a look.

1 Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates), 2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together among the villages in the plain of Ono." But they thought to do me harm.

Why did Sanballat et al try to meet with Nehemiah? According to Nehemiah, "they thought to do me harm." He understood that these men were his enemies, opposed to God's work, regardless of whether or not they appeared to want to stand with him.

Then Nehemiah's enemies took a different tact.

5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6 In it was written:

It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king. 7 And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, "There is a king in Judah!" Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.

Interesting, isn't it? Sanballat turns from trying to meet with Nehemiah to actually accusing him of doing several things that would appear treasonous to the king at that time.

Nehemiah was actually a cupbearer for the king and had been given permission to go to Jerusalem to rebuild things. Sanballat may or may not have known about this agreement between Nehemiah and the king, but he was trying to sound authoritative in hopes of scaring Nehemiah into stopping work on the wall around Jerusalem.

Nehemiah responded to Sanballat with these blistering words.

8 Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart."

So Nehemiah essentially calls out Sanballat, not only denying Sanballat's charges but turns the tables and calls Sanballat a liar. Sanballat's efforts were not working because Nehemiah saw through it and continued rebuilding the wall.

As if all this was not enough, Nehemiah encountered another problem from someone else, who turned out to be a spy (a secret informer). This guy, Shemaiah, did what he did for payment from Sanballat. People were bought then as they are now. Wave enough money in front of certain people's faces and they'll give you what you want. Greed has that effect on many people as I'm sure you know.

Shemaiah wanted Nehemiah to "hide" himself inside the temple and to close and lock the doors because he told Nehemiah that they wanted to kill him. So if he locked himself inside the temple, he would be protected.

In essence though, Nehemiah would be deserting his post, which would amount to treason and therefore sin. The Mosaic Law also prohibited anyone but actual priests from seeking sanctuary inside the temple and Nehemiah was not a priest. He knew he had no business trying to shut himself up inside the temple for his own safety.

Shemaiah is just one of many false prophets who said what people wanted to hear and could be bought with a price. Nehemiah did not allow himself to be bullied or pushed around by Shemaiah.

Clearly, God provided Nehemiah with wisdom and discernment and we see that in verse 12.

Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

I highlighted the first few words above to show that Nehemiah was given godly insight into what was happening. It seems clear that God revealed this information to Nehemiah. It is also clear that God will choose to reveal information to us as we live the way Nehemiah lived; in constant dependence upon and submission to God.

So these enemies of Nehemiah (and also of God), tried three times to harm Nehemiah or destroy his reputation. Yet, in each situation, he was not deterred because of his faith in God. That faith provided the opportunity for him to have clarity of thought, wisdom and discernment. Interestingly enough, there appears to be a mass psychosis occurring throughout the world, built on lies. These lies are designed to get people to respond in a certain way, often against better judgment.

For instance, we're now told that two pandemics (Bird Flu and Monkey Pox), are here so we need to be scared again. I continue to see people wearing masks and acting fearfully around those who don't don masks. Here are some ominous words from former CDC director Redfield about the bird pandemic.

I believe the great pandemic is still in the future, and that's going to be a bird flu pandemic for man. It's going to have significant mortality in the 10 to 50% range. It's going to be trouble.

How would Redfield know that? Well, according to Lifesite News, apparently, Bill Gates helped fund more gain of function research into the bird flu that forever it seems, has not really been a problem for human beings. However, because of the "research" they did (read: mad scientists in their labs with God complexes), they were able to cross the bird flu "...with the 2009 H1N1 (swine flu) virus, creating an airborne hybrid capable of completely evading the human immune system, effectively rendering humans defenseless against it."

Then there's monkey pox (or is that "money pox?"). Apparently, The WHO isn't too worried about it (but don't forget initially Fauci and others completely downplayed COVID and said to ignore it and go about your daily lives), but the USA has already purchased \$119 million dollars worth of monkey pox vaccines.

Speaking of The Who, they are in talks now on whether to accept those nations who have offered to hand over sovereignty to The WHO to decide when, where and how the next pandemic will be dealt with and The WHO will have lone authority. It appears Biden is willing to hand over US sovereignty, which is actually treason. If this goes through, it will take effect November 2024. We've got time, right?

If US sovereignty is given to The WHO, there will likely be plenty of people in the USA who will ignore it and continue living by the Constitution. I suppose The WHO could then send in UN blue helmets or possibly the federal government could direct police officers to start enforcing any mandates issued by The WHO, but would that work? In blue states, it would most likely work. In red states and in the south, would that work? I cannot imagine it, except possibly bluish areas in those red states. I cannot imagine

Sheriffs going along with it at all, but the men and women in blue? It's certainly possible many will "follow orders."

But beyond this, much of the world is in a drought, WWII is kind of happening, gas prices are skyrocketing and going higher, food prices are also breaking records because of a growing food shortage and other supply chain issues that started with CV lock-downs.

So they allowed us to have our freedom back to a degree now, but we are to understand that those freedoms can (and will), be revoked at any time, with the next pandemic. So be ready to immediately click your heels together, salute and ask "how high?" when told to jump. Your full cooperation makes the globalists' job so much easier. I mean, they don't really want to send in the troops but will if they "have" to.

The Left lies. It's what they do to gain the advantage and to put their ideologies into play. The Left will lie, cheat, steal and threaten to get their way. Yet, this same Left constantly portrays conservatives as the "violent" ones, which is not the case. The Left is always projecting onto conservatives what they (the Left), does and says. The MSM always backs the Left up. Why? Because all news networks are owned by six companies with Leftwing CEOs.

We live in dangerous and disingenuous times. Learn to be careful. Live in constant communion with God in Christ. Learn to trust Him for wisdom, discernment and a growing faith that He will meet our needs.

Be like Nehemiah.
