*Christ is not only a remedy for your weariness and trouble,
but he will give you an abundance of the contrary, joy and delight.
They who come to Christ, do not only come to a resting-place after they have been wandering in a wilderness, but they come to a banqueting-house where they may rest,
and where they may feast.
They may cease from their former troubles and toils,
and they may enter upon a course of delights and spiritual joys.*

Jonathan Edwards (18th century American Reformed theologian)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
