

Sermon Notes for Kids

Date _____

Title _____ Text _____

There is no sadder _____ in the Psalter.

It is good that have a psalm like this, but it is also good that we have only _____.

Psalm 88 is a _____ psalm

The last word of the Psalm is _____

Life is full of trouble and _____

Sons of Korah = Levitical temple _____

The Psalm falls into _____ sections

Answer my prayer, I am about to _____ (1-9a)

I cry out day and _____

My soul is full of _____

My eyes grow dim through _____

Answer my prayer, act before it's too _____ (9b-12)

To die was to be cut _____

Answer my prayer, You are sovereign over my _____ (13-18)

God has forsaken and _____ the Psalmist

The psalm ends with this word: _____

Believers may face very dark period with no easy _____

Darkness does not have the last word because this is only _____ Psalm

Darkness does not have the last word because this Psalm is ultimately fulfilled in _____

Jesus experiences Psalm 88 to the _____

When we feel like darkness is our closest friend, we must realize that because Jesus bore my darkness, He is my closest friend.