Introduction

- I. In Psalm 139, David praises God for His omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence.
- II. Where do we see God's power?

God's Power Displayed in the Womb

I. Wonderfully Made

- A. David praises God for His omnipotence.
 - 1. What is God's omnipotence?
 - 2. There are so many who do not see or know God's omnipotence.
- B. David speaks of an amazing display of God's omnipotence the forming of a child in the womb

II. Eternally Known

- A. Jehovah knows His people from all eternity.
 - 1. What is the book in vs. 16?
 - 2. David speaks of the place that each one of us has in the body of Christ.
- B. According to God's eternal knowledge, we are fearfully and wonderfully made spiritually.
 - 1. The miracle of God giving physical life is but a picture of the greater work of God's grace by which He makes us spiritually alive.
 - 2. David confesses His faith that God has done this "and that my soul knoweth right well."

III. Knowingly Praised

- A. The effect of knowing the power of Jehovah is David praises Him I will praise thee..
- B. But, in the end, God is worthy to be praised because He is all-powerful. How do we do this?