

“EXAMINE YOURSELVES”

2 Corinthians 13:5-14

- Back to where we started on February 5 ...
- Paul “turns the table” on the Corinthians, and then he reaffirms his hopes.

1. CHALLENGE.

- Examine yourselves
- To see whether you are in the faith
- Don’t you realize Christ is in you?
- Unless, of course, you fail the test.

2. HOPES.

3. INSTRUCTIONS.

- Aim for perfection.
- Listen to my appeal.
- Be of one mind.
- Live in peace.

4. GREETINGS.

5. BENEDICTION.

WHAT NEEDS DO YOU HAVE THAT THIS BOOK ADDRESSES?

Were any of these needs addressed during this series?

- for comfort
- for understanding and coping during affliction
- to forgive and reaffirm love for someone
- to receive new life through salvation
- to deal with feelings of inadequacy
- to be a better witness and testimony to others
- to be less influenced by the world
- holy living
- victory over discouragement
- to deal with false accusations
- to understand why God doesn’t seem to answer prayers
- to learn more about death and judgment
- motivation to be a giving person
- new vitality in ministry
- ability to discern false teachers
- get back to a simple devotion
- to stop comparing yourself with others
- learn how to battle attacks on your mind
- to genuinely repent of sin
- ability to accept weaknesses and move on
- for the awareness of Satan’s activity in all of the above