"The _____ of God has its spring in the divine goodness. The first issue of God's goodness is His benignity or bounty, by which He gives liberally to His creatures as creatures; thus has He given being and life to all things. The second issue of God's goodness is His mercy, which denotes the ready inclination of God to relieve the misery of fallen creatures." - A.W. Pink

1. A prayer for God's mercy begins with the recognition that you are in desperate _____.

2. In _____, we must go to God for mercy.

a. It is God who gives the spiritual _____ to be able to see Him for who He really is.

b. In faithful obedience we should respond to the Lord's invitation to _____ upon Him for all things.

c. Faith enables us to _____ in our prayer to God for mercy in spite of things that hinder us.

3. God's sovereign mercy can so _____ us that we follow and trust Him with our life.

*"Let us see in these simple words, a lively emblem of the effect that the grace of Christ ought to have on every one who tastes it. It ought to make him a _____ of Jesus in his life, and to draw him with mighty power into the way of holiness. Freely pardoned, he ought to give himself freely and willingly to Christ's service."
