Fan the Flame—it’s Father’s Day!

Luke 11:5-8

1. Asking the right source for help is good.

Luke 11:9-10

2. A loving father says “yes” to the right things and “no” to the wrong ones.

James 1:17; Luke 11:11-12

3. When there is a need, we should offer to give good gifts.

“Investigators such as Lorne Mosher of the National Institute for Mental Health, Dr. Walter Mischel and others have found from the cross-cultural studies they conducted that poverty is not as important a factor in juvenile delinquency as the absence of a competent and loving father.” - Daniel Amneus

“From relationships, education, to mental instability, to crime, one factor looms as the most significant contributor: A home without a dad.” - David T. Moore

“The heart of every little boy and girl lies within a father’s hands. Every broken promise and abusive word tears a hole that may never be mended.” - David T. Moore

Luke 11:12, 13

4. God offers His ongoing presence through His Spirit.
5. You can invite others to meet your Father.

Matthew 22:8-9
