

The Gospel of Matthew #69Sermon on the Mount: chapter 7: Climax of instruction & warningsOverview of Matthew 7:

7:1-12: The danger when you hear chapters 5 & 6 is to still try to establish your own righteousness. That will lead to 4 feelings:

7:1-5: feel superior by Law → judge everyone

7:6: feel superior by “Love” → judge no one

7:7-11	feel hopeless; need enlarge confidence in Father
---------------	---------------------------------------------------------

7:12 feel confused; simplified summary

7:13-27: Final invitations and warnings by means of 4 contrasts:

7:13-4 2 gates & roads: wide & narrow

7:15-20 2 kinds of fruit: bad & good

7:21-23 2 displays of “faith”: simple obedience & flashy miracles

7:24-27 2 foundations: sand & rock

Be very careful to know where you are!

WRESTLING WITH GODMatthew 7:7-11

These verses among most misunderstood because taken out of context:
seen as teaching on persistent prayer

Compare 7:1-5 do not ever judge; be tolerant of all
21:21-22 you can move mountains thru your faith

So here: if you persist in prayer, you will surely get your good gift from God

In context, however, I believe it is saying something quite different

7:1-12: four ways of reacting to Jesus’ teaching of chapters 5 & 6:

3. Feel hopeless because you will never measure up to Jesus’ standards

This brings you right back to the beginning of the sermon: 5:3

You come to God as a spiritual beggar to ask for _____ in your confusion, and _____ in your weakness

Invitation	Promise	For you: Everyone
Keep asking	Will be given	Receives
Keep seeking	Will find	Finds
Keep knocking	Door will be opened	Door opened to you

Sometimes it doesn't seem that way!

Keep on, because you know the Judge is also your kind and good heavenly Father: v9-11

Argument from _____ to _____ :
If your son asked for bread, you give a stone?
fish, snake?

Do you think God is less compassionate than you are?!
5:48; 6:8, 26, 30, 32

But if it is about our minds and hearts, why does Jesus say "good gifts" in v11?

11a is "good gifts"; but 11b is simply "good"
(cf. Luke 11:13: "the Holy Spirit"!)

This is not about _____ ; it is about the _____ .

God wants us to seek after Him and His wisdom with passion and insistence. He is not found by the casual.

Proverbs 2:1-6; 4:7-9; 8:10-11, 17, 34-36

Eg: Gen 32:22-32: how Jacob met God

Jesus is your Wisdom (I Cor 1:30); set your heart on Him and He will meet you and give your deepest desire.

Believe His goodness and set your heart on Him.
