

Trust in Troubling Times

Psalm 27

Introduction

This is a song of confident hope. It is a psalm of determined resolve. It speaks of trust in troubling times. King David provides for us a critical analysis of how, faced with those who want to destroy him he can say, “yet will I be confident” (v3).

How is that possible? Here’s how...

- I. Confidence in the Lord’s Strength (vv1-3)
- II. Confidence in the Lord’s Presence (vv4-6)
- III. Confiding with the Lord in Prayer (vv7-10)
- IV. Confidence in the Lord’s Guidance (vv11-12)
- V. Confidence in the Lord’s Goodness (v13)

I. Confidence in the Lord’s Strength (vv1-3)

Depending on the unlimited strength of the Lord to deliver you from attack.

II. Confidence in the Lord’s Presence (vv4-6)

Desiring closeness and safety with the Lord in the shelter of His presence.

King David places his unwavering confidence in the pleasure and safety of the presence of the Lord.

IV. Confidence in the Lord’s Guidance (vv11-12)

Determining the way you should take from the directions the Lord provides in His Word.

If we would have the Lord hear our voice in prayer, we must hear His voice in Scripture, and follow Him!
