The Deity of the Preincarnate Christ

Philippians 2:5–11

Two Fundamental Questions:

Who was Jesus Before He Came?

What was Jesus When He Came?

We have learned:

- 1. Php. 2:5–11 was written in context to provide an example of humility and serving one another which is stated in Php. 2:1–4.
- 2. That Christ Jesus preexisted His incarnation as undiminished deity. Php. 2:6
- 3. At the Incarnation God the Son did not surrender or give up any divine attribute, or anything essential to deity. Such a surrender would not have been possible.

- 4. God the Son voluntarily restricted the use of His divine attributes to solve the problems, temptations, and challenges He faced in His humanity, and veiled the manifestation of His eternal glory.
- 5. However, though the visible manifestation of His glory was veiled, the glory of His Person was made manifest through His words and works.

John 1:14, “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.”

Who was Jesus before He came?

Understanding Who God is: Unity and plurality

Did Jesus preexist creation? And if so, is He eternal?

Distinguish preexistence from eternality of Christ

- Passages in the New Testament which teach His preexistence
- Passages which predict the coming of the Messiah
- Passages which indicate His humanity

Two Streams from the Old Testament Converge in Jesus of Nazareth

A Divine Messiah

A Human Messiah

The Plurality

There were basically two options:

Option 1: Dynamic Monarchianism (or adoptionism), which is the heresy of unitarianism: God the Father infused or imparted deity to Jesus at some time during His life on the earth. This denies the absolute or undiminished deity of Christ saying that Jesus was a human endowed with divine powers.

Adoptionism: An Attempt to Explain Christ

Modalism: The terms “Father,” “Son,” and “Holy Spirit” merely describe different modes that the one God manifests Himself. This heresy does not give the Son or the Holy Spirit independent personhood. God is one in Person and One in Nature, with different ways of appearing.

Modalism: An Attempt to Explain Christ

Arianism: The Opponents and the Issue

Arianism: A form of dynamic monarchianism is Arianism, which explained the relation to the Father by saying the Son was created in eternity past. Thus the Son was not full deity.

Biblical Basis for Plurality in the Godhead

Isa. 59:21, “ ‘As for Me,’ says the LORD, ‘this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants’ descendants,’ says the LORD, ‘from this time and forevermore.’ ”

New Testament Passages on Plurality

Matt. 28:19, “Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,”

Who Was Jesus in His Preincarnate State?

1. The historic, orthodox answer is that Christ is the eternal Son of God. His relationship is to the Father as the one who is eternally begotten.

“And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, begotten from the Father, only-begotten, that is, from the substance of the Father, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, of one substance with the Father,”

~The Nicene Creed

Isa. 45:18, "For thus says the LORD (YHWH), Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited: 'I am the LORD, and there is no other.' "
