

Boaz and Jesus, Part 3

Ruth 3:1-13, 4:1-10

Boaz foreshadows Jesus, the ultimate “mighty man,” because:

1. He was a relative.
2. He showed favor.
3. He was devout.
4. He was respectful.
5. He protected.
6. He provided.
7. He satisfied.
8. He gave rest (3:1, 1:9).
9. He redeemed (3:9, 12; 2:20; 4:1-10, 14-15).

Leviticus 25 & Deuteronomy 25

Who owned the land of Israel?

The redeemer had to be a _____ who was _____ to pay the price and _____ to do so.

Why was marriage to Ruth involved in this?

Did Boaz actually do the right thing by marrying a Moabite?

10. He sacrificed (4:5-6).

Matthew 20:25-28

The word “ransom” implies three important things:

- _____
- A _____ that must be _____
- The _____ to pay that price

11. He kept his promises (4:9-10; 3:13).

12. He finished the work (4:9-10; 3:18).

Boaz and Jesus, Part 3

Ruth 3:1-13, 4:1-10

Boaz foreshadows Jesus, the ultimate “mighty man,” because:

1. He was a relative.
2. He showed favor.
3. He was devout.
4. He was respectful.
5. He protected.
6. He provided.
7. He satisfied.
8. He gave rest (3:1, 1:9).

9. He redeemed (3:9, 12; 2:20; 4:1-10, 14-15).

Leviticus 25 & Deuteronomy 25

Who owned the land of Israel?

The redeemer had to be a _____ who was _____ to pay the price and _____ to do so.

Why was marriage to Ruth involved in this?

Did Boaz actually do the right thing by marrying a Moabite?

10. He sacrificed (4:5-6).

Matthew 20:25-28

The word “ransom” implies three important things:

- _____
- A _____ that must be _____
- The _____ to pay that price

11. He kept his promises (4:9-10; 3:13).

12. He finished the work (4:9-10; 3:18).