The Greatest Question

Mark 12:28-34

For all of human history man has asked both impossible and important questions. What is the greatest question that man can ask?

- I. The _____: Teacher to Teacher (28a; 32)

- II. The _____: Question and Answer(s) (28a-33)

- III. The _____: Right but Wrong (34)

- IV. The _____: Religious but Lost (34)

That is a striking remark because the conversation has been the Torah or eternal life. It is hard to imagine a rabbi presuming to pronounce a matter. The scribe can judge who is faithful to the Torah; but Jesus, the Torah, also supersedes the Torah every creedal confession and for near to the kingdom of God not by drawing near to Jesus.
